AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

Considering the Reduction of Internal Revenue Taxes.

Considered the Reduction of Internal Revenue Taxes.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Sixty Representatives attended the Republican caucus last night to consider the subject of reducing the internal revenue taxes, as contemplated by the Kelly bill. Kelly asked the party to allow the early consideration of the bill without amendment. A protracted discussion ensued, in which Kasson and McKinley advocated the bill, and Hazleton and others opposed it. The opposition, while favoring a slight reduction, was against a reduction of the taxes on whisky and cigars. The general sentiment indicated by the discussion, were decidedly opposed to any sweeping reduction this session. Another caucus on the subject will be held in a few days. It is believed the party will agree to pass the bill this session removing the tax on bank deposits, bank checks, matches and proprietary medicines, but that no action will be taken on the other features of the Kelly bill.

STAR ROUTE JURORS.

The Post says that the Star Route jury found that Laird had been convenient for the Marshall's summons and that Dorsey was seen to have the ear of the Marshall in a secluded alcove. Attorney-General Brewster for a time seriously contemplated demand of the Marshall his resignation, but after a long conference with the Marshall the idea was abandoned. It is not charged that the jury had been corrupted or is susceptible of being tampered with.

REBUKING THE NEWSPAPERS.

In the Criminal Court, Judge Wylie said that great injustice had been done by articles in the New York and District papers to the Marshall of the District and the jurors. He then explained how carefully the jurors in these Star Route cases had been selected. When jurors are regularly accepted they are to be free from criticism, and it was a cruel injustice for newspaper writers to assail them without basis, as he was convinced had been done. He thought the District Attorney ought to take official notice of these articles. He cautioned the jury to be especially careful to keep secluded and disarming suspicion. Mcweeney then renewed his argument for Dorsey.

Death of Lucius Robinson.

Weeks, Secretary of the association, says that a new organization of all the manufacturers of the West was formed, its object being to govern the question of wages as well as the regulation of the card rate. The meeting was the largest ever held. The situation was fully discussed. It was unanimously resolved not to start mills in accordance with the present demand. Every present pledged himself to adhere to the resolution.

The Greenbackers of Ohio.

COLUMBUS (Ohio), June 8.—The Greenbacker convention which met to-day had fifty delegates. One per cent of the whole number was apportioned to counties. A long series of resolutions opposing monopolies was adopted and a ticket nominated as follows: For Secretary of State, George L. Hoffer, of Miami county; for Supreme Judge, L. B. Tuttle, of Lake county; for member of the Board of Public Works, L. B. Stevens, of Lucas county.

ANTI-SLAVERY COMMITTEE.

At the anti-Slavery Executive Committee to-day an address to the people was adopted, setting forth the claims of the valleys against hydraulic mining, and appealing to the people for countenance and support. The address declares that no remedial measures can prevail, and that the first hand of the destroyer must be stayed. The meeting adopted a resolution declaring that the alkali issue is a political issue. Each member of the committee present signed a memorial to the Secretary of the War Department asking the dismissal of Colonel Mendall for reasons therein stated. When signed by absent members it will be forwarded to Congressman Berry for presentation.

OREGON REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 8.—The Legislature is evidently Republican by two majorities. Returns from remote counties may increase it to six or seven. The line to eastern Oregon is still down. Mail advices indicate that the Democratic majority of that section will be smaller than usual. Yesterday's figures on the majority for the state Republican ticket are likely too low.

GAMBLING.

What a sufferer has to say of the Accursed Habit.

EDITOR TIMES: In a recent issue you say one hundred outlandish gamblers arrived in Denver from Chicago. What a pity we have not some of the Chicago officials in authority in Los Angeles to rid us of our thieves and sharpers. Your words found an echo in the heart of many a mother and wife in our fair city. The large number of gamblers infesting Los Angeles was noticed and commented upon by many of our honest citizens, and one of them, a Texas editor, afterwards, in his paper, called public attention to this blot upon our city's fair fame. More than fifty well known gamblers ply their avocation in this city, and live upon the earnings of our husbands and sons. Those men are known to every official in Los Angeles. Their haunts are in the very center of the city, and are as well known as the city hall. They are there every night, but more especially on Saturday and Sunday night, the games go on, and the laboring man and boy are attracted from the path of rectitude, and robbed of the earnings of the week. If which the wife and mother must suffer privation and hunger. But, gladly could we suffer for these if the evil went no further; but the loss of money is the least evil which the gambler inflicts on his victim. Habits of drunkenness, profligacy, and idleness are formed at the gaming table, and indulged in until the victim becomes a sot, and falls as low in the human scale as the wretch who has brought these curses upon him. Can nothing be done, or rather will nothing be done by those in authority to save our men and boys from the rapacious claws and soul-destroying influences of these wicked and law-defying gamblers? Cannot the example of Chicago be followed and our city be rid of this pollution? If our city officials are negligent of their duty to those who are honest and law-abiding, let the grand jury be appealed to. It was intended to have the gamblers indicted and arrested by the last grand jury, but those having the matter in charge did not get their cases ready in time. Let us hope they will succeed before the next grand jury.

A SUFFERING WIFE.

LOS ANGELES, May 31st, 1882.

Mrs. J. H. Mosser and Mrs. Gill have gone to the San Juan springs for their health, to be gone about three weeks.

Through the perseverance of Mr. O. T. Stacy of the Newport store, we now have a daily mail, which is a great convenience to the swamplands.

Mr. J. A. Williams was elected School Trustee last Saturday for the term of three years.

Mr. H. C. Ladd writes from the San Juan Springs that the mornings of the 1st and 2d inst. were quite showery at that famous resort.

The Newport school will close this term two weeks from Saturday (10th).

when there will be a two weeks' vacation, and then commence again for a term of four or five months. The general health of the Santa Ana valley is good.
